
For Small Group Discussion:

Opening Question: What qualities do you admire in other people?

Main Point: Our generosity is not only an indicator of our priorities, but also one of our greatest opportunities to accurately represent our God

Read/Tell the Story: 2 Corinthians chapters 8 & 9

Questions:

1. Have you ever known someone who didn't have much but was generous?
2. Does it take discipline for you to be generous, or does it come easily for you?
3. Have you ever known a stingy person? How did you feel about that person?
4. How has God's generosity to you impacted you in the different spheres of your life? (Home, World, Church)

5. What are some of the consequences you have faced because of poor financial decisions?
6. When has someone met a need for you that was meaningful?

7. How does our generosity impact our witness and representation of our God?
8. What is one way you can show the generosity of our God in this season?

Supporting Scripture: Mark 8: 34-36, Ecclesiastes 5:10
