Happy New Year

Psalm 100:1-5 Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth! Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

laugh out loud...

You can tell a lot about a person by the way they handle these three things: a rainy day, lost luggage, and tangled Christmas tree lights.

HOW NOT TO BECOME A GRUMPPARENT

THERE ARE MANY THINGS YOU COULD SHARE WITH YOUR GRANDCHILDREN, FAMILY AND FRIENDS, BUT, THE KEY TO WHAT TO SHARE IS TO FIRST EARN THE RIGHT TO HAVE YOU SPEAK BY LISTENING TO THEM. YOU HAVE TWO EARS AND ONE MOUTH ... "LISTEN TWICE AS MUCH AS YOU TALK"

HINT - "I had two grandpas. I can't remember anything one of them said to me but I remember about the other grandpa that he always knew my name, smiled at me when he saw me and I knew he loved me and listened to me and did things with me."

HERE ARE IDEAS OF QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR GRANDCHILDREN:

What is the funniest thing you remember that happened today?

What is your least favorite thing about school?

What is your favorite part of school?

What is the best present you have ever received?

HERE ARE SOME IDEAS YOU MIGHT SHARE WITH THEM ABOUT YOUR LIFE:

Tell them you love them and that there is nothing they could ever do to make you love them less or make you love them more.

Tell them stories about where you lived when you were their age.

Tell them when you accepted the Lord.

Tell them what the Lord Jesus means to you? (The great things God has done for you).

More ideas on Bill's website!
